This is a place apart, rugged but accessible — and brimming with untouched wonders. Get ready for huge vistas of tundra, mountains and forest, enormous lakes and rivers, and plenty of astonishing wildlife.

But you don't need to rough it to take the measure of our great land. Do your exploring by bus, plane or boat. Journey down the Mackenzie, Canada's longest river, aboard MS Norweta. Bask in the Midnight Sun as you enjoy panoramic scenery or visit historic sites. Cruise Great Slave Lake's magical East Arm, Canada's next National Park. Get stunning aerial perspectives on awesome Nahanni National Park, or flightsee the Mackenzie Delta and Arctic Islands. You can drive North on any of our adventure highways, through jaw-dropping landscapes. The 730 km Dempster Highway (above), Canada's only road to the Arctic, takes you all the way to Inuvik and a host of side-trips to write home about.
