Don't Miss Our Spectacular Parks

Northwest Territories' Parks offer more than quick and comfortable stopovers.

Each park is a mini destination with lots to see and do. Some are beside thundering waterfalls, or on the shores of pristine lakes or rivers. Some have interpreted walking trails. And some are minutes from NWT communities. NWT parks offer a wide range of facilities and services, are safe destinations and are easy to access from our highway system. Make visits to NWT parks part of your vacation itinerary.

SPECTACULAR NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

The Dempster Highway

There's only one road to Canada's Arctic and this magical highway takes you there. Across open tundra and at the foot of the Richardson Mountains, the vistas and landscapes will leave you speechless. At the end of the road is the charming town of Inuvik, a mix of Inuvialuit and Gwich'in cultures. Each July Inuvik plays host to the Great Northern Arts Festival. 2013 is a very special year as the festival celebrates its 25th anniversary.

The Abraham Francis Ferry at Fort McPherson is free of charge and will take you across the Peel River.

Stop at the Arctic Circle for a rest and a snack and enjoy the beauty of the tundra. Read about the geography and history of the region at the information kiosk and of course, take a photo!

There is wildlife along the Dempster Highway. Take your time and you will spot caribou, moose, wolves, or even Grizzly Bears!

Explore the Western Arctic

Drive the Dempster to experience Gwich'in Territorial Park then the Town of Inuvik which is situated on the banks of the Mackenzie River. Explore Tuktoyaktuk, the pingos, Aklavik and more.
