

YOU keep saying you'd like to head up to the Northwest Territories some day...

But WE haven't had the pleasure of meeting... yet.

So we'd like to personally invite you to visit us at one of our spectacular events and festivals. That's where our character and spirit really shine. Have a look at a few of the reasons to cross the 60th parallel into Canada's Northwest Territories.

REINDEER GALORE AND MUCH MORE

Hang out with the herd and take in Inuvik's famous Muskrat Jamboree

What does it look like when 3,000 reindeer cross an ice road on Canada's largest and longest river system? Find out on March 29, 2015 when a managed herd of reindeer is guided across the Mackenzie River Ice Road enroute to their calving grounds.

Join us for the annual spring festival, the Muskrat Jamboree, in Inuvik and a quick trip "down river" to see the thousands of reindeer gather, grunt, and stampede before your very eyes.

Getting here: Air transportation to Inuvik is via Edmonton, Yellowknife or Whitehorse. Canadian North or First Air can fly you from Edmonton or Yellowknife to Inuvik. Air North connects Vancouver and Whitehorse with Inuvik.
