

A photograph of the Aurora Borealis (Northern Lights) in shades of green and purple, shimmering in a dark sky over a calm lake. The silhouettes of evergreen trees are visible along the shoreline in the foreground.

MEET SOMEWHERE DIFFERENT.

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES, THE AURORA CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

If you have plans to get your team out of the office this year, go somewhere that's really worth visiting. Hold your next conference in the Northwest Territories. We have the facilities, the services, and the expertise to make your conference or incentive package a spectacular event - whether you bring six or six hundred people.
