

#NWTSECRETS

Lean in close, we have a secret to share.

The Northwest Territories has spectacular mountains. They stretch north from the B.C. border almost to the Arctic Ocean. Wild rivers cut through mountain valleys and canyons. The world renowned Canol Heritage Trail winds 335 km from the Mackenzie River to the Yukon border. And Canada's highway to the Arctic rolls through the spectacular Richardson Mountains. Discover Canada's other mountains. Discover a Northwest Territories' secret.
