

ROAD TO THE TOP OF THE WORLD

SPECTACULAR
NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

YOUR ULTIMATE ARCTIC ADVENTURE

Are you ready to experience a journey unlike any other in North America? The Dempster Highway is a fabled 740-kilometre adventure to the top of the world - at least as far as roads will take you. Across the Arctic, people talk about the Dempster with awe and aspiration - it's a trip many will dream about but few will ever take. From Dawson City in The Yukon to Tuktoyaktuk in the Northwest Territories, you're setting out to cross off a "must-do" on any traveller's bucket list and drive into the Arctic Circle. Whether you stop along the way at picturesque communities or territorial campgrounds, you'll be seeing a side of the North that others can only imagine - right up to the top of the continent. Go back home saying you've touched the Arctic Ocean.

Timeless landscapes. Rich culture. Unimaginable beauty. On the road, It's just you, your vehicle, and the land. Drive the Dempster Highway and experience the crown jewel of Northern road trips.
